

QUALITY STANDARD

1. Perfect logs

Vli Timber logs are premium quality logs for wood burning stoves and fireplaces. It is responsibly produced from carefully selected round logs to bring more heat. The firewood we supply has no mold, fungus or dirt. The wood is bright, not effected by sunlight.

Perfect logs

Log shape:

Semicircle
Round log split in two

Triangle
Round log split into 4, 6 or 8 parts

Log size:

Length: few types of standard log lengths available: 25cm, 30cm with +-1 cm tolerance.

Width: to preserve convenient firewood use, log width is restricted from min. 6 cm to max. 14 cm. The width is measured at the widest log part.

Length

Width

Width

2. Suitable but undesired

Small defects that have no impact on burning performance, are tolerable. Logs that are decayed by one fifth, or not split round logs, belong to this group. The amount of such logs in a package must not exceed 20%.

Round, not split logs

One fifth decayed log

One fifth decayed log

3. Unsuitable quality logs

Below listed logs, are of unsuitable quality and should be removed from packages during packaging process. The maximum amount of unsuitable quality logs tolerated on a package is 3%.

Moldy log

Decayed log

Rotten log

Log with branch

Too tiny log

Too large log